

A Fantastic Feast

The Murray family offers a gourmet feast featuring a medley of Northwest seasonal delights presented by chef Scott Davis. Your special evening begins poolside with a selection of Northwest wines and hor d'oeuvres, followed by wild rice stuffed salmon with all the trimmings, ending with desserts, coffee, and liquers, served around an open fire under the stars. Look out over the Tualatin Valley (optional pre-dinner swim or after dinner jacuzzi).

Minimum Bid: $50

| Bidder Number | Bid Amount |
|----------------------|-------------------|
|                      | $50              |
|                      | $75              |
|                      | $100             |
|                      | $125             |
|                      | $150             |
|                      | $175             |
|                      | $200             |
|                      | $225             |
|                      | $250             |
|                      | $275             |
|                      | $300             |
|                      | $325             |
|                      | $350             |

Guaranteed Purchase

$500 _____